Presentation and Review of Secretary's minutes...Michelle Curnow

February 18th meeting minutes were approved.

Feast of St. Joseph-

This feast occurred today and it is a parish event with about 55-56 people attending. Repairs have been made this past year and the building is scheduled to be painted in the next 2-3 years.

Easter Sunday

Easter will held at South Point High School. Masses will be held on Easter Sunday at 9:30 and 11:30. Two large banners will inform people where and when Masses will be as well as mail out flyers to all registered and unregistered members.

PPC member

Jan Kauer resigned from the council. Fr. Frank accepted her resignation. The position will be refilled at a later time.

Offertory

There is an increase in the offertory.

Small Group Experience

The feedback has been positive and good from members who have participated in the small group experience this Lent.

Passion Play

Rehearsals are going well as new crew members have joined this year. This is a positive focus for the church.

RCIA

12 adults and 2 children (over the age of 6) will become full members of the church at the Easter Vigil.

Name Tags

They have arrived. PPC members are to wear them to church.

Golf Tournament

The Queen's Classic will occur on October 12 (Columbus Day) at Pine Island County Club and Elizabeth Atterbury is the chair. The barbeque event will be on Friday October the 9th with expanded times both lunch and dinner this year. Ranuccis will donate dinner the day of the tournament.

Parish Life

The last part of the meeting Father Frank defined and listed Parish Life events and programs, most of which are ran by volunteers and 3 associated staff members. PPC members were asked to list how these social events can grow in the next 5 years.

Below is the list of ideas:

- Fitness Class (night @YMCA)
- Refreshments after 5pm Saturday Mass
- Spring/Fall Festival
- Christmas Parade
- Family Dinner Experience
- Date Night
- Dinner to begin Summer Faith Formation
- Bowling League
- International Dinner
- Theater production
- Opera/Play in City/Whitewater Center
- Parties Dances
- Dinner-Silent Auction
- Extend Pentecost to evening with music
- Sports events in Charlotte
- QofA nights @ restaurants

What events would we eliminate was also asked to the PPC members. The attendance at Bingo/Movie Night and Saturday breakfast are waning.

Closing Prayer was provided by John Fout

Adjournment

Next PPC meeting is April 16th
